

MILDRED HART BAILEY FACULTY RESEARCH AWARD

Sponsored By:
NSU FOUNDATION
In Conjunction With:

NSU Research Council and Office of Research and Sponsored Programs

Given in memory of Dr. Mildred Hart Bailey, this award acknowledges outstanding research, distinguished artistic performance, or creative work substantially completed during the past three years. NSU faculty and adjunct faculty carrying a 12-semester-hour course load are eligible for nomination.

Dr. Bailey joined NSU in 1963, and by 1966 she had initiated a graduate program in reading. Among other honors, Dr. Bailey was the first president of the Association of Louisiana University Teachers of Reading, recipient of an honorary life membership in the Central Louisiana Reading Council, and recipient of the NSU College of Education's Distinguished Faculty Chair Award. Dr. Bailey retired from NSU in 1989.

The research programs of faculty nominees for the MHB Award are evaluated for:

- ★ Originality and ingenuity of project design
- ★ Scholarly or creative significance
- ★ Critical recognition by experts in the field
- ★ National, regional, or local impact
